A video posted online shows the sweet moment as a Brockport student asked another student to prom.

In the video (<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=yFVD738vZdU>), senior Diana asks Ketchel to the dance after he is led down a hallway following footprints on the floor with sayings on them.

18-year-old Ketchel Clements of Brockport has Cornelia de Lange Syndrome or CdLS -- a disorder that causes physical and mental disabilities similar to Down Syndrome.

The trail of footprints started outside of his classroom and eventually led him to Diana. Where, in front of his mom and classmates, Diana popped the big question.

She asked, "Would you like to go to prom with me?"

To which Ketchel replied, "Yes!"

We spoke with Ketchel's mother Chris Clements and she told us her son and Diana grew up together! Ketchel is good friends with Diana's brother Dwight who also has learning disabilities.

In a Facebook post, Ketchel's mother said, "There are great people in the world and I'm grateful that Diana is including him in this school memory."
